

This semi-detached house is situated in quiet area in Alness. The property is close to Coulhill Primary School and the secondary school, leisure centre, swimming pool and library which are all a short walk from the house. Other local amenities include a variety of shops, supermarkets, banks, Post Office, hotels and restaurants. Inverness is 20 miles distant and Dingwall is 10 miles away. There are bus and train services on a regular basis to both north and south.

Number 10 was built by the local authority in 1955. The back of the property faces the road and to the front there is a very large mature garden which extends to approximately 0.2 acre. The house benefits from gas central heating and double glazing. The rooms are generously proportioned and it's possible that with appropriate planning consent that a drive could be installed. The property would now benefit from some modernisation and on completion would provide an ideal first time purchase, family home or buy to let opportunity.

Directions: From the west approaching the High Street before the bridge turn left into Firhill and then first right into Coulhill Road then first right again taking you on to Hill Street. From the east, go through the High Street and cross the bridge then turn right into Firhill then follow the instructions above.
